

Career Opportunity Nursery Supervisor

The Laguna de Santa Rosa Foundation is now accepting applications for a full-time Native Plant Nursery team member!

Grow Native Plants. Restore Ecosystems. Lead with Purpose.

The Nursery Supervisor works closely with the Nursery and Seed Programs Manager to carry-out nursery tasks to produce high-quality, locally sourced native plants, supporting habitat restoration throughout the Laguna Watershed. This position leads staff, interns, and volunteers and fosters a collaborative and inclusive environment that strengthens both community engagement and program impact.

- Produce Locally Sourced Native Plants: Support the propagation and care of locally sourced native plants, applying best management practices to nurture healthy, resilient plant communities.
- Lead with Purpose: Facilitate daily nursery operations that directly support habitat restoration, helping bring native landscapes back to life across the Laguna Watershed.
- Inspire Future Leaders: Supervise and uplift staff, interns, and volunteers—creating a collaborative, inclusive environment where people and plants thrive together.
- Strengthen Impact and Connection: Contribute to community engagement efforts that expand the reach and impact of restoration work.

The Laguna de Santa Rosa Foundation is a watershed-based 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Sonoma County. We work to restore and conserve the Laguna and its surrounding watershed, and to inspire appreciation of the vital wetland habitats and the plant and animal communities that rely on it.

This is a full-time position requiring 32–40 hours per week located in Santa Rosa, CA. Hourly pay range: $23.25–$26.00. Eligible for participation in employer-sponsored health, dental, and vision insurance, accrued vacation, sick leave front-loaded annually, paid holidays, two paid personal days, and participation in 403(b) retirement plan.
